TIONSThere is cultivated by the Democracy, and with some degree of success, the idea that the Federal election bill will sap the vital traditions of the American Government and trench dangerously upon the personal liberty of the citizen. But the truth is that the Lodge bill does not affect any State election at all. It relates solely and only to those elections for Federal positions that the Constitution gives Congress the power to supervise and guard from fraud. In the South, for instance, while the Lodge bill will enable the negro to vote in Congressional elections as he chooses, in all State elections his vote may be repressed as in the past and the present, so far as the Federal law is concerned.The negro has been manning things for himself down South or has permitted his enemies to do it now or a dozen years, with the result that he is literally crowded from the polls unless he votes the Democratic ticket. His subjection in that direction is practically complete. The Federal Government owes him freedom, at least so far as elections are concerned, over which the Federal legislation is by the Constitution given jurisdiction.If there was reason to expect that there would be any reformation of the abuse referred to on the part of the dominant elements in the South, then there might be reason in withholding the measure under discussion. But there is nothing whatever to indicate that there will be any change, or that the negro be given as full opportunity to vote as any other citizen.
The measure is not, however, sectional, but is applicable to all portions of the Union, and may be invoked whenever a petition for its enforcement is presented to the proper authority, and the demand is of a certain strength. As we said the other day, wherever an election is honestly held for Congressmen, and there is untrammeled exercise of the electoral franchise, the bill cannot excite the fears of honest men, and if there is not freedom and honesty in a Congressional election, then there is need for the protection such a measure is designed to give.There have been too many Congressional elections that were nothing more than farces, and national integrity is imperiled by all such. There must be no disfranchisement of citizens in this country except for crime committed, if we are to preserve free institutions. If voters are to be counted for the purpose of securing representation in the Federal Legislature then they must be counted also in the ballot-boxes at the election of representatives. It was not the intention of the fathers that the citizen should anywhere in the nation be prevented from voting at an election that is to determine who shall represent him. The power to protect the representative in the free exercise of their right to choose their representatives is expressly given by the Constitution of the United States. It was not embodied in the fundamental law for the purpose of letting Congress have the power to regulate times, places and the manner of holding elections for its own members.The truth is that no liberties will be endangered by the bill, except of those who have prostituted them to the base end of preventing others from declaring anew at the polls the sentiment that the Government is defensible, right and sacred that is based upon the consent of the governed. The purpose of the bill is to crush out election frauds in choosing representatives to Congress, and we repeat that it is dangerous only to those who are guilty of such frauds—that is the sum and substance of the whole matter.

THE WRONG MAN SHOT.

It is very much to be regretted that the wrong man was shot in the office of the Spokane Spokesman last Saturday. The whole thing resulted from the row ought to have been inflicted upon the proprietor or editor of the paper, if some one must be hurt. It appears that the Spokesman claims to be a family and general newspaper, two notorious plug-uglies had agreed to fight a prize-fight, and the principals and a lot of other roughs met at the office of the paper in question, to sign articles for the disgraced and unlawful affair. One of the editors, or reporters of the paper, was the stakeholder, and hence the meeting was arranged to be held in the office of that journal. The rowdies got into a dispute, presently came to blows, and finally to the use of weapons, in which a third party took a hand, with the result that one of the pugilists was fatally shot.Now, if it had been the editor or reporter who prostituted the office or such base uses who had received the bullet of the rough in his carcass, there would have been a degree of justice in the action. Any newspaper that pretends to be decent, and

PREPARATIONS FOR THE GRAND CELE-BRATION IN SAN FRANCISCO.The Fortieth Anniversary of the Admission of California into the Union Will Long be Remembered.The Press Committee of the Grand Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, Messrs. John T. Greany, G. Gunzendorf, James Oakley, Daniel Suter and R. M.
Fitzgerald, have issued the following circular, containing information in regard to the coming celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the admission of California into the Union:The arrangements for the celebration of Admission Day in San Francisco, on September 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, are assuming definite shape, and the fortieth anniversary of the State's admission into the Union will be celebrated in a fitting manner, the Native Sons of the Golden West having entered upon the work in a manner that precludes the possibility of anything but success crowning their efforts.
The various subordinate committees have made reports to the Joint Committee which indicate that the celebrations of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Knights Templar held in San Francisco will be surpassed on Admission Day. It is the first time in the history of the State that an attempt has been made to celebrate California's birthday on such an elaborate scale. The Native Sons from every section of the State will attend, bringing with them their friends and relatives to enjoy the various entertainments that will be provided during the first and second weeks of September. The event will be long remembered by all who participate, as an appropriate commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of the admission of California into the Union.It is expected that nearly $100,000 will be expended in the proper observance of the day, which amount is already assured.
The different Parlor have headquarters throughout the city, where visitors will be royally entertained. Beside the decoration of the city, the Mechanical Pavilion will be gorgeously adorned. The grand grotto will be held in the Pavilion, admission to which will be strictly by invitation.September 9th having been declared a legal holiday, will give many additional persons an opportunity for enjoying the celebration. The day will be a grand success, and will run from all parts of the State, and the attendance in San Francisco will be very large.Arrangements have been already made with the proprietors and managers of all the principal hotels, lodging houses and restaurants, insuring to all visitors the usual and in many instances reduced prices for board and lodging. A Committee on Hotels and Accommodations has already been appointed and is now ready to arrange for the accommodation of visitors.The arrangements for the entertainment of the guests so far as completed, indicate that the celebration will be the greatest event of such character in the history of the State. The various committees have charge are working zealously and many novel features will be provided throughout the demonstration.The festivities will commence on Saturday evening, September 6th, by a magnificent display of fireworks and competitive grills by the various corps in the Order, in Union Square, which will be badly decorated for the occasion.Sunday, the 7th, will be a day of rest preparatory to the festival days following.
Sunday morning special services will be held in all of the churches in honor of California's anniversary, and in the afternoon a grand social concert will be given in Golden Gate Park, for which a special programme will be arranged, and excellent music discoursed.On Monday, September 8th, will be devoted to an exchange of fraternal courtesies by the members of the different Parlor with their friends, and a general welcome to all visitors. In the evening a grand and magnificent made concert will be held in the Pavilion, and everybody given an opportunity of viewing the pleasing and brilliant display of fireworks.Tuesday, September 9th (Admission Day) will witness the most grand, the most magnificent and gorgeous demonstration in the history of the State. At the conclusion of the parade, literary exercises will be held in the Grand Opera House, and an interesting programme offered.The different Parlor will also entertain visitors on that day. A grand evening regatta will also be held in the afternoon.
In the evening the grand ball will be held at the pavilion, and there will also be a grand display of fireworks.Wednesday, September 10th, excursions around the city will be held, and the Admission Day to a fitting close.For the excursion it is expected to secure three or four steamers to carry the visitors to the different points of interest.The above is a correct outline of events to be celebrated during the coming celebration, and the committees in charge.
Other interesting features will also be provided for the entertainment of the visitors.Special provisions will be made to en-tain the press of the State. It is desired that every newspaper man in the State shall attend, and that he may obtain a grand and valuable idea of the grand purposes of the idea of the grand purposes of the fraternal order designed to add to the material and moral advancement of the State.All necessary material for correspondents and other press work will be provided, and it is expected that the visiting journalists will find the most cordial and helpful treatment. The members of the Press Committee will also provide special entertainment for their guests during the entire celebration.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

PROPERTY-OWNERS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO IMPROVEMENT.

The Midland Sleep-Closing Ordinance Put to Sleep—Grace Cook and Her Water Bills.

At the session of the Board of City Trustees yesterday P. S. Lawson complained of the quality of the gravel that was being put on O street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth. He said that the specifications called for coarse gravel on the bottom and fine gravel on top, but Contractor Ewing was not paying any attention to that part of the contract. He was hauling fine gravel.

Mr. Lawson further stated that he would not pay his share of the cost of the work if the contractor continued to use such gravel as was at present being hauled on the street.

Street Commissioner McLaughlin promised to give his attention to the matter.

Property-owners in the block bounded by N and O, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets, sent in a petition asking that water mains be so extended that they could get the city water. The request was referred to Trustee Wolf.

A petition for an electric light at Sixth and R streets was referred to the Street Commissioner.

A remonstrance was received against grading and graveling the alley between H and I, Seventh and Eighth streets, and it was also referred to Trustee McLaughlin.

H. Devin, the City Expert, sent in a communication explaining that there was no shortage in the Water Works tap account.

Chief Engineer Judd of the Water Works reported that during the past week 40,000 gallons of water were pumped. The running time of the works was 67 hours, and the Stevens 119 hours.

Mrs. Grace Cook wanted to know why the city water was shut off from her house, on Sixth street, between P and Q streets. She called at the office of the Water Works Clerk and wanted to pay the bill, but he still refused to take the bill.

Clerk Coffey was called, and stated that there were back water-bills due to the amount of $40.00, and Mrs. Cook had refused to pay them.

Mrs. Cook said she wasn't going to pay her husband's bill, and didn't care whether the water was turned on or not. She would get it anyhow.

E. M. Leitch wanted Trustee McLaughlin to introduce the ordinance which compelled saloons to close at 12 o'clock at night, but the Street Commissioner said he was not quite ready to do so.

T. Hague suggested to the Board that Third street, from T to V, be graded and graveled at the same time, instead of simply rounded up.

The Street Commissioner favored the idea, and promised to look into the subject and report next week.

But one bid was received for the grading and graveling of L street, from Fifteenth to Twenty-eighth streets, and it was found to be from the Sacramento Improvement Company.

When the bills of the Central Electric Company came up for payment, Trustee McLaughlin wanted to know of Mr. Meyers, the Superintendent, whether or not he would allow a water bill to be paid out of the company's over-charge for ninety days.

Mr. Meyers said he could not see that the charges made were more than the contract price.

The Mayor said he would stand in with the city, but he thought the bills were all right. If the old rates had been charged by the company, he figured that the cost would have been more than the amount of the present bills.

Trustee McLaughlin said he was not going to say anything, but he was tired of it. He had protested so long that he was tired of it. He thought the company had imposed on the residents and taxpayers of the city.

Mr. Meyers asked that one of the company's men be appointed a special officer, whose duty it was to see that the boys do not break the globes. There were on an average of half a dozen broken every week by mischievous children.

The Board thought the request should be granted, and referred Mr. Meyers to the Chief of Police.

No action was taken on the bills.

Mr. E. H. Wain wanted to know when the Board were going to turn the electric light from Tenth and R streets to Ninth and R.

The Street Commissioner suggested that the trees in that vicinity be trimmed up, and the light would serve people living on Ninth street.

A recess was taken until 1:30 p. m.

At the afternoon session the Sacramento Street Improvement Company was awarded the contract for grading and graveling of Fifteenth to Twenty-eighth streets, from N to O, and ordered, also, from T to L.

Also, H street, from Tenth to Twenty-third, and the alley between O, P, Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, from Tenth to Twenty-third.

The contract for improving and graveling the Y street levee, from the river to Ninth street, was awarded to the City.

A remonstrance was received from a majority of the property-owners on E street, between Tenth and Fourteenth, against the improvement of that block the present season.

TEMPERANCE MATTERS.

THE WORK OF THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

At Saturday's session of the County Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Charles McKelvey submitted the following report of county work during the past year:

James S. Bond, Friends: We come to this annual convention with reports from different sections of our county, bearing on our hearts the burden of struggling humanity. Of those who need our aid in their conflict with the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, we have a large number. We have a large number of our friends, expecting the victory, because the Lord of hosts, watching over them, like the angels of Israel, watched over Moses the lifting and the placing of the pillar of cloud and fire, shall not forsake them. We have a large number of our friends, expecting the victory, because the Lord of hosts, watching over them, like the angels of Israel, watched over Moses the lifting and the placing of the pillar of cloud and fire, shall not forsake them.

There was a statue which makes it a misdemeanor for any property-owner to rent his property to persons who proposed to use it for the purpose of conducting a saloon or a place of ill-fame. Here was a way for the Board to correct the nuisance complained of (it is a nuisance). They had no right to banish or expel persons living in respectable houses.

Mayor Constock did not think that any attention could be paid by the Board to the petition which had been handed in. It was accordingly laid on the table.
